

The rank of deacons has five degrees, which is as follows in ascending order:

Epsaltos - Augustus - Ipodiaton - Diacon - Archidiacon

The Epsaltos

Psalmos - Harper - Cantor, (also written: Absalts - Ipsaltos) Arabic translation of the Greek word ψ ψάλτη أي ψ ψάλτη أي ie "mantle" or "hymn", a fifth rank. The origin of the verb in Greek is ψάλλω (Salus) and the Epistle is the smallest church rank, a non-priestly rank. The work of the chosen is the singing and singing of the melodies of the church. In the ordination of Epistasis, the ordination begins with the Lord's Prayer(Our father who art in heaven) and then the Thanksgiving prayer.

The Augustus

Also written: Agnostos : meaning a reader. The word reader means its interpreter which is understood by reading. That is why the readings of the church are called readings of Agnosticism, which the deacon reads to explain to the people what the book wants to say.

The Ipodiaton

His work is to help the deacon in all his works and, in particular, to preserve the doors of the church and to preserve the church system. Keep the church quiet and everyone in place. He organizes but his heart prays so it is a dangerous rank. It is an example of worshipers and organizes them

The Diacon / Evangelical deacon

In Syriac, the word "deacon" means "servant" .They were mentioned for the first time in Acts (Acts 6).And stipulated conditions for distinguishing them from the rest of the believers. Social service was their first responsibility. We hear of St. Stephen that he also worked in preaching and teaching (Acts 10,9,1: 6). The deacons are the servants of the altar, who pray with the priest's father and help him complete the liturgy. They have more than a degree of sun.The rank of the deacon is the full deacon, the full servant. Serves the altar and warns the people and serves the poor outside the altar. He was appointed priest and bishop. If the birch is taking the hand, do not get married. He will be a dedicated deacon

The Archidacon

It is a Greek word consisting of two parts (Archie) meaning the head and (Zyakon) meaning deacons Vikon concerned (head of deacons) (and writes in some references: Archidacon, Archie Diagon). He is the head of the junta and sits on the left of the bishop or the patriarch, handing the blood, serving the orphans, caring for the worshipers, wailing the non-disciplined, organizing the eulogies and reciting the prayers when the patriarchs and bishops are lit. They call it the Announcer and the Announcer for every prayer and its beginning.
